Michèle Mees

Partner
Centre for Balanced Leadership

Michèle Mees supports CEOs and management teams in creating a balanced organizational culture, and empowers both men and women to develop feminine and masculine qualities in a balanced leadership style. Her passion comes from her belief that this results in increased personal and team wellbeing, better individual and team performance, stronger customer relations and a more sustainable, respectful way of doing business.

Michèle is author of the book “The Balanced Leader”. She regularly blogs and twitters on women’s advancement and balanced leadership (www.femcoblog.blogspot.com and @MicheleMees) and is a regular speaker at conferences and in-company events. She is Member of the Jury of the AXA WoMenatWork Award. Michèle is mother to 2 teenagers.
