

Access to Experts

Michelle Shumate

Associate Professor in the Department of Communication
Northwestern University
Director, Network for Nonprofit and Social Impact

Michelle Shumate is an associate professor in the department of communication studies at Northwestern University and the director of the Network for Nonprofit and Social Impact at Northwestern. She received her Ph.D. from the Annenberg School of Communication at the University of Southern California. Shumate has published or presented over 40 research papers dealing with communication and organizing. Her research has been published in Human Communication Research, the Journal of Computer Mediated Communication, Management Communication Quarterly, and the Journal of Communication. She was awarded a National Science Foundation CAREER award and a Beckman Fellowship at the Center for Advanced Study at the University of Illinois. In addition, Shumate's forthcoming work on social entrepreneurs and their networks was funded by the Academy of Entrepreneurial Leadership at the University of Illinois. She has served on the editorial boards of the Journal of Applied Communication Research, the Journal of Communication, Management Communication Quarterly, and the Journal of International and Intercultural Communication.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org

Publications by Michelle Shumate

Director Notes

- The Communication Patterns of Corporate Social Responsibility within and across Industries
02 April, 2012