

Access to Experts

Julie D. Crisp

Julie D. Crisp is an associate in the San Francisco office of Latham & Watkins LLP and specializes in executive compensation and employee benefits matters. Ms. Crisp advises public and private companies on the establishment of compensation arrangements for executives and employees, including employment, severance and change in control agreements, equity and non-equity incentive compensation arrangements, and deferred compensation arrangements. Ms. Crisp also counsels companies on matters relating to the employee benefits and compensation aspects of initial public offerings, mergers and acquisitions and financings, including golden parachutes and health and welfare plan issues. In addition, she has served as a co-author for law firm client alerts and corporate governance commentaries relating to executive compensation and employee benefits matters.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org

Publications by Julie D. Crisp

Director Notes

- Disclosure Lessons from the 2013 Proxy Season
27 August, 2013
- Defining Pay in Pay for Performance
25 September, 2012
- Proxy Season 2012: The Year of Pay for Performance
16 April, 2012