

Georgia Magno

Chief Legal Officer
Baker Hughes

Georgia Magno is the Chief Legal Officer (CLO) of Baker Hughes. She is responsible for the Company's legal and regulatory affairs, corporate governance and compliance function and for driving regulatory compliance, risk management and strategic direction of corporate governance across Baker Hughes as well as liaising with the Board of Directors.

Magno has two decades of global experience, including over a decade of international legal leadership in Baker Hughes across commercial, operational and product line organizations. She joined the Company in 2010 as general counsel for global supply chain and most recently served as general counsel of the Industrial & Energy Technology business segment, managing international and complex affairs. Prior to Baker Hughes, she was an international litigator with the law firms of Cleary Gottlieb and Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP.

Magno is a Trustee of the Baker Hughes Foundation. She has been a visiting researcher at the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania.

Magno is a member of the New York Bar and holds a Master of Laws degree from Harvard Law School and a Juris Doctor from the University of Bologna.