Executive in Residence
Amazon

Jana Werner is an Executive in Residence at Amazon Web Services, where she guides the executive teams of Fortune 500 companies in building adaptive resilient organizations. Her insights are forged from a career at the intersection of business strategy and technology: leading major digital transformations in financial services, guiding and scaling tech startups to growth and acquisition, and advising on complex global change at DHL. Her academic background in uncertainty dynamics grounds her practical advice for leaders navigating complex environments. She is a sought-after speaker and lecturer for executive and student education at institutions like Oxford and the London School of Economics, and a published author with Harvard Business Review.
