

Jackie Olliff

CHRO
ApolloMD

Human Resources professional with over 15 years of leadership experience, focusing on enhancing employee experience and organizational efficiency. Currently serving as Chief Talent & Human Resources Officer, collaborating with teams to drive HR strategies and foster leadership within the company.

Aiming to redefine the perception of HR by championing "Employee Experience Departments," leveraging expertise in human resources, leadership, and organizational development. Committed to creating impactful changes that align with company goals and support employee success.