

Nelissa Arriaga

Senior Manager of Global Benefits
Celonis

Nelissa Arriaga is Senior Manager, Global Benefits at Celonis. With more than a decade of progressive leadership in benefits strategy and operations, she has overseen health and welfare programs for global workforces and driven outcomes that align cost management and employee engagement. Nelissa holds the CEBS designation and has a proven track record of building benefits frameworks that are inclusive, compliant, and operationally efficient. Her experience spans managing vendor relationships, adapting programs across regulatory environments, and partnering with executives to shape total rewards offerings.