

Access to Experts

Michael Newman
Vice President
Travelers Foundation

As Vice President of the Travelers Foundation, Mike gives direction to the charitable contributions arm of the company and its foundation. Previously, he was Manager of North American Field Operation where he developed the capacity of field offices to implement the company's community affairs strategy. He joined The St. Paul in February 1997 after spending the early part of his career in the nonprofit and governmental arena.

At the state Department of Human Services, he directed community affairs and human resource, management, and organizational development for a department of 8,000 employees and 15,000 volunteers. Prior to that, he served as Chief of Volunteer Services for the department, providing training and consultation in volunteer management to local agencies. He has previously directed two local volunteer programs in addition to having done development work with the United Way of Minneapolis.

He served from 1995-1999 as President of the international Association for Volunteer Administration and has served in numerous board capacities with the Admission Possible, Minnesota College Access Network, Page Education Foundation, Minnesota Association of Volunteer Directors, Dakota Woodlands, Minneapolis Red Cross, Minnesota Social Service Association, Minnesota Children's Trust Fund, the Arts and Culture Partnership, and other organizations. He has served or continues to serve as a volunteer with a diverse number and type of nonprofit organizations

Newman has a bachelor's degree in social work from Bemidji State University and his graduate work was in Community Development at the University of Minnesota. He and his wife, Deb, live in Eagan with two sons, Zachary (25) and Tyler (18), one daughter Sarah (20), one dog (Charlie, Sheltie), and two cats (Duke and Mia).

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.