

Benjamin Tschida

Director, Corporate Client Services
CAF America

Benjamin is the Director of Corporate Client Services at CAF America, where he leads the Corporate Client Team and partners with companies and corporate foundations to execute strategic global philanthropy programs. His work focuses on helping corporate partners navigate the complexities of domestic and cross-border grant making, from program design and grant management to regulatory compliance and risk mitigation. Benjamin works closely with clients to develop customized giving solutions, strengthen nonprofit partnerships, and translate philanthropic goals into meaningful impact. He brings experience in corporate philanthropy, international grant making, client strategy, and program management.
