

Ed Ludlow

Host, Bloomberg Tech and Correspondent, Bloomberg News
Bloomberg

Ed Ludlow is the San Francisco-based host of Bloomberg Tech, the only daily news show focused exclusively on tech and innovation. Ludlow is also a correspondent, reporting and writing for Bloomberg News across Tech, supply chains, deals and finance.

Since moving to San Francisco in 2018, Ed has covered a wide-range of topics from Silicon Valley to the automotive industry and consumer technology. Ludlow has documented the roller coaster story of clean-energy truck startup Nikola, broken key stories on newcomers to the EV space including Rivian and Lucid and detailed Elon Musk's purchase of Twitter. On-air, Ed has covered space launches including SpaceX missions to service the International Space Station, the 2020 U.S. Presidential Election and contributes with breaking technology sector news and markets coverage through the US TV day.

Ed holds a Law and politics degree (LLB) from Cardiff University and a postgraduate degree in broadcast journalism from the Cardiff University School of Journalism, Media and Culture.
