

Access to Experts

Lorenzo Patelli

Assistant Professor, School of Accountancy
Daniels College of Business, University of Denver

Lorenzo Patelli is an assistant professor at the School of Accountancy of the Daniels College of Business at the University of Denver. Prior to joining Daniels, he taught at Benedictine College and previously at Erasmus University Rotterdam in the Netherlands. He earned his PhD in business administration and management with a concentration in accounting from Università Bocconi in 2006. His areas of interests are performance management and corporate governance. He has published academic research papers in a number of journals, including Corporate Governance: An International Review, Journal of Accounting, Auditing and Finance, Long Range Planning, Management Accounting Research, and European Accounting Review. Patelli has served as editor of the Journal of International Business and as an ad-hoc reviewer for many journals. He has received a number of academic honors, including several teaching excellence awards and the 2008 David Solomons Prize from Management Accounting Research.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org

Publications by Lorenzo Patelli

Director Notes

- Stakeholder Dialogue in Germany, Italy, and the United States
11 July, 2012