

Access to Experts

Cori Hill

Global Director, High Potential Development
PDI Ninth House

Claudia “Cori” Hill is the creator of Active Leader, the simulation-based leadership development approach that has grown to be the single most frequently delivered and globally accepted learning program at PDI Ninth House. Cori came to PDI Ninth House in 1998 from Northwest Airlines where she developed and implemented a wide range of safety and service training projects, specializing in the management of international contract training. She partnered with NATCO to bring emergency management training to aviation organizations around the world. She also held performance improvement roles at Minnesota Public Radio, Carlson Wagonlit Travel, and Pan American Airways.

Cori, who is currently completing her Ph.D., is the author of A Consultant’s Guide to Action Learning, co-author of Developing Leaders and Organizations Through Action Learning as well as numerous articles. She is fluent in Spanish and English.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world’s leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org