Veronica Schilling
Head of Diversity
Allianz SE

Veronica Schilling has led the diversity initiative at Allianz since 2006, initiating interventions to promote diversity - from strategic ownership to global programs fostering diversity and inclusion. She was instrumental in establishing senior level sponsorship, specific goals and the set-up of the Allianz Global Diversity Council. Currently she is driving global initiatives and measurements especially focussed on women in leadership, disability, work life management among others.

Veronica came to Germany on an international assignment and has held responsibilities in Marketing, internal consulting and HR. She had previously worked for Allianz in Malaysia in Business Operations and in the Allianz Representative Office.

She has a Postgraduate Diploma in Marketing and has also experience working in luxury goods retail and in an educational franchise.

Veronica Schilling is a Malaysian and a parent of a 4 year old daughter. She enjoys creative tools, back-pack and luxury travelling.
