

Access to Experts

Kimberly Byer-Clark
Program Director
The Conference Board

Kimberly Byer-Clark is a program director with The Conference Board. She develops and produces workshops and conferences in the Corporate Leadership practice. Kim is also responsible for content development, speaker selection and recruitment, sponsorship sales, and webcast production. From 2009-2011, Kim served as the Director of Programs for the NBMBA Atlanta Chapter and currently serves as the Director of Special Events. She is responsible for planning, organizing and facilitating the chapter's scheduled networking events and co-chair of the annual scholarship luncheon. She is a proud graduate of Howard University, B.A. Political Science. Kim went on to receive her paralegal certificate from St. John's University. She has also taken additional financial courses at New York University.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org