Joel Constable
Learning and Development
Google, Inc.

Mr. Constable works in executive development at Google where he designs and manages leadership development and onboarding experiences for Google directors. He's been at the company for more than six years and had the opportunity to create learning programs for every function, geography, and level of the organization. Prior to Google, Mr. Constable lived and worked abroad where he learned that loudly enunciating his words in English would not, in fact, translate them to another language. Mr. Constable has an MBA from the Fuqua School of Business at Duke University, an M.A. from the Stanford University School of Education and a B.A. in English and Communications from the University of Washington. He enjoys running, college football, and writing in the third person.
