People Development Manager

Google, Inc.

Ms. Radack leads the Global Noogler (new Googler) Onboarding team at Google. Her team's mission is to ensure that every new hire gets a great start at Google--which is no small feat for a company that hired ~10,000 employees in 2011 alone. Ms. Radack is a long-time Googler; she first joined Google's sales force in 2004, working in the Online Partnerships Group as a community and social media manager for AdSense. She spent six years in this group in various positions, including managing customer engagement and acquisition, working for two years in Google's Hyderabad, India office, and overseeing Marketing efforts in the EMEA region. She joined the People Development team in 2011 to pursue her passion for helping Googlers develop and grow their careers. Prior to Google, Ms. Radack worked at Fidelity Investments and America's Growth Capital. She is an avid reader and globetrotter, and lives with her husband and daughter in Palo Alto, California.
