Jack Zwingli
Leader, Information Services
Farient Advisors
jack.zwingli@farient.com

Mr. Zwingli is responsible for directing Farient's efforts to support investors and corporations with research and analysis focused on executive pay and performance alignment. Farient helps clients develop performance-enhancing and defensible executive compensation plans, and is a recognized leader in alignment of pay and performance. Before joining Farient, Mr. Zwingli led the creation of GMI Ratings, the leading independent provider of global corporate governance and ESG ratings and research. As CEO of GMI, he led a successful effort to integrate three independent research businesses to form a global market leader. Mr. Zwingli also spent over a decade at Standard & Poor's (S&P), where he had overall management responsibility for many of S&P's well-known business lines. He was named to the 2011 NACD Directorship 100.
