Roseanne T. Danner

Director, Global Business Productivity - DuPont Sustainable Solutions
DuPont

Rosanne Danner is Director, Global Business Productivity, of DuPont Sustainable Solutions, a global solutions business specializing in transforming workplaces and work cultures with services and technologies that bring about sustained improvements in safety, operational and environmental performance.

Rosanne joined DuPont in 1981 and brings extensive and varied experience within the company to her current position. Previously she served as President of the DuPont Sustainable Solutions consulting business in the United States and Canada. In that role, her responsibilities included developing and directing the implementation of business strategies to drive growth, monitoring market needs and overseeing more than 200 consultants. Prior to this, Rosanne was Director, Global Marketing and Sales Effectiveness, for DuPont Sustainable Solutions, developing strategic alliances with clients globally as well as promoting best practices around sales and marketing. As Director, New Business Development, for DuPont Safety Resources—now a part of DuPont Sustainable Solutions—Rosanne had responsibility for a new solutions offering and was accountable for setting direction for marketing, sales, and delivery.

Rosanne has a Bachelor of Engineering degree in Chemical Engineering from City College of New York and a Master of Business Administration degree from Widener University in Pennsylvania. She has received two DuPont Marketing Excellence Awards and several nominations. She is a certified Green Belt and a Six Sigma Market Process Champion.

Originally from New York City and now working in Wilmington, Delaware, Rosanne is married and has two sons, ages 22 and 25. Her hobbies include reading, golf, travel and photography.
