Michael Washburn
Vice President of Sustainability
Nestlé Waters North America

Michael Washburn is the Vice President of Sustainability at Nestlé Waters North America (NWNA). His primary focus is working with a coalition of recycling stakeholders to advance Extended Producer Responsibility (EPR) for packaging and printed paper in the United States. Michael's work also includes building NWNA's efforts towards innovation in energy usage and building design across its manufacturing facilities, and encouraging constructive water policy initiatives.

Prior to NWNA, Michael held a senior position at The Wilderness Society and was Vice President of Brand Management at the Forest Stewardship Council-US. Michael holds a Ph.D. in forest policy from Penn State University and has served as an advisor to the USDA Forest Service on sustainability issues. Michael serves on several nonprofit boards of directors and devotes significant time and energy to the fields of workplace giving and disability advocacy.
