

Access to Experts

I Lee

Bill Lee is president of Lee Communications, a marketing communications firm in Dallas whose clients include Lucent Worldwide Services, Network Appliance, and other technology firms. He has written for a number of publications, including: Wall Street Journal, Communication World, Management Review, and Organizational Dynamics. His book, Mavericks in the Workplace: Harnessing the Genius of American Workers, was published by Oxford University Press in 1998.

A graduate of the University of Texas at Austin and former mathematics teaching fellow at Stanford, Lee brings a varied background to business issues. He was vice president of operations for Lee-Emmert, a prominent Dallas construction firm, and controller for Glastron, a major recreational boat manufacturer. He also served as an official in the department of defense during the George H.W. Bush administration.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org

Publications by Bill Lee

Research Report

- Mid-Market CEO Challenge
08 March, 2005