Russell Morris
Vice President, Human Resources
The Conference Board

Russell Morris is vice president of human resources and a member of the executive committee of The Conference Board. He joined The Conference Board in July 2007 to lead its Human Resources and Business Operations Councils. He has also developed The Conference Board Global Executive Leadership Program for senior business executives, created new councils, and expanded the reach of Council Perspectives. Most recently, he served as chief of staff to the CEO, leading key initiatives across the organization.

Prior to joining The Conference Board, Morris was a partner in McNulty Morris Associates LLC. In this capacity, he coproduced and/or created several conferences, including the Talent Management Strategies, Succession Management, Leadership Development, Enterprise Learning Strategies, and HR Outsourcing Conferences. Morris and Jean McNulty also led The Conference Board Research Working Groups on Talent Management, Employee Engagement, Global Leadership Development, and Strategic Workforce Planning.
