

Access to Experts

Deborah Kops
Senior Advisor
The Conference Board

Deborah Kops is Managing Principal of Sourcing Change, the first resource dedicated to services change management. With experience as a shared services executive, buyer, provider, and private equity adviser, she works with leading companies to manage globalization challenges.

Her career includes managing directorships at both FleetBoston Financial (now Bank of America) and Deutsche Bank, partnerships at Arthur Andersen and PricewaterhouseCoopers, and chief marketing officer of a leading Indian-legacy outsourcing company.

Deborah frequently presents at major industry forums, and leads The Conference Board's Global Business Services and Emerging Shared Services Councils. She also leads a research group comprised of leading companies investigating the impact of shared services and outsourcing on finance transformation for ACCA, the British finance accreditation organization.

A strategic advisor to technology companies mercator.com, antuit.com, and paymentworks.com, Deborah serves on the board of social impact outsourcer Digital Divide Data, and is the founder and chair of Liberty Source PBC, the first BPO harnessing the talents of US military spouses to perform finance functions.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

Publications by Deborah Kops

Council Perspectives

- Sourcing at Home: Is the United States a Viable Component of a Global Services Portfolio?
15 October, 2013