Alexander Parkinson

Senior Researcher and Associate Director, Society for New Communications Research (SNCR)
The Conference Board

Alex Parkinson is a senior researcher and associate director of the Society for New Communications Research of The Conference Board (SNCR). He specializes in corporate philanthropy and communications and marketing, and is the executive editor of Framing Social Impact Measurement and Giving Thoughts, a blog and online publication series in which The Conference Board engages corporate philanthropy experts in an open dialogue about topical issues of concern to member companies. He is also the author of Making Sense of Social Impact Bonds for Companies, Better Together: Why a United Front Can Propel Diversity and Inclusion and Corporate Philanthropy in the United States and co-author of Corporate Communications Practices: 2016 Edition.

Alex led the integration effort between SNCR and The Conference Board when the two organizations came together in February 2016. He serves as the combined entity's Associate Director and is a member of the SNCR Advisory Board.

Before joining The Conference Board in September 2013, Alex worked as a senior consultant in London and New York for corporate social responsibility (CSR) consultancy Context. He has advised some of the world's leading multinationals on CSR communications and strategy development. His clients included Bloomberg, Brown-Forman, BSKyB, Burt's Bees, Cisco, HP, International Paper, PepsiCo, Roche, Standard Chartered, Syngenta, Teva Pharmaceuticals, and Vodafone.

Alex spent two years after graduating university working as a reporter and sub-editor for UK-based financial media companies VRL KnowledgeBank and Vitesse Media. His stories appeared in publications including Business XL, Information Age, International Accounting Bulletin, The Accountant, and What Investment.

Alex holds a BSc in economics and international development from the University of Bath, United Kingdom.
