Rolando M. Tomasini

rolando.tomasini@insead.edu

Rolando M. Tomasini is a research program manager at INSEAD. Tomasini joined INSEAD in 2002 to help develop research in the area of disaster management. His work focuses on humanitarian relief operations (coordination and preparedness) and the role of the private sector in emergencies from the angle of corporate social responsibility.

Through his involvement with different humanitarian organizations at field and head office level, Tomasini has produced several case studies, articles, reports, and lectures. He is currently editing a book that compiles all his work (expected for 2008).
