

Access to Experts

Margaret P. (Peggy) Eisenhauer
Program Director, Chief Privacy Officers Council
The Conference Board

Margaret P. (Peggy) Eisenhauer is Program Director of The Conference Board Council of Chief Privacy Officers. She is a member of the International Association of Privacy Professionals, a Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/US), Chair Emeritus of the CIPP Advisory Board, a Fellow of the Ponemon Institute, and a member of the Nymity Advisory Council, the BNA Privacy Law Advisory Board, and the 501st Legion.

Outside of her work with The Conference Board, Margaret is the founder of Privacy & Information Management Services – Margaret P. Eisenhauer, P.C., an Atlanta, Georgia based law firm and has extensive experience with U.S. and international privacy laws and industry best practices for managing consumer, customer, and employee information. She has been named one of the Top 25 American Privacy Law Consultants by COMPUTERWORLD. She is recognized by Chambers Global: Guide to Leading Business Lawyers in the area of privacy and data security. Margaret is also the author of the case book, A Global Survey of Privacy & Security Enforcement Actions with Recommendations for Reducing Risk (International Association of Privacy Professionals, May 2008).

Margaret has a Master of Science in Information & Computer Science from the Georgia Institute of Technology, and graduated with honors from the University of Georgia, School of Law. She is admitted to practice law in the state of Georgia.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.