

Siqi Zhou

Former Associate Economist
The Conference Board China Center for Economics and Business

The following is a biography of former employee/consultant

Siqi Zhou is an associate economist at The Conference Board China Center for Economics and Business in Beijing. Her research focuses on China's consumer market.

Previously, Zhou was a program coordinator at the Global Energy Initiative. She also worked as a Research Intern at Ashoka (the largest network of social entrepreneurs worldwide) and WITNESS (an international human rights organization).

Zhou earned her BA in urban management and regional economics at Peking University and holds a MA of public administration from the Maxwell School, Syracuse University. Her areas of study included policy analysis, regional economic, and nonprofit management.