George Khalaf serves as the Middle East/North Africa Regional Director for the Synergos Institute as well as the Director for Synergos Consulting Services. Over the past five years, Mr. Khalaf has designed and implemented programs and partnerships that address the systemic challenges underlying issues of poverty and inequality in the MENA region. As a regional director Mr. Khalaf has designed, built, and supported a network of over 300 social entrepreneurs whose work is impacting the lives of tens of thousands of women, children, youth, and people with special needs.