

Access to Experts

Liza Wisner

Learning and Organizational Development Manager
City of Corpus Christi Learning Institute

Award-winning television personality, Liza Wisner serves her community as the learning and organizational development manager for the City of Corpus Christi and was the top 3 finalist on the television show, “The Apprentice”, with Donald Trump. Liza works directly with many organizations, to make their products and services connect better with their employees and their community.

Liza is a graduate of Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi earning a Bachelor’s degree in Computer Science and Master’s degree in Educational Technology. Liza is also the founder and CEO of the non-profit, ‘PowerUp.org’ whose mission is to ensure that all individuals—especially those at risk of being left behind—have the resources and the opportunities they need to live productive lives.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world’s leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org