

Access to Experts

Dinah A. Koehler, Sc.D.
Deloitte

Dinah Koehler, Sc.D. is research leader for sustainability and climate change at Deloitte Research – the research division of the Deloitte US firm. She earned her Doctor of Science degree in Environmental Science and Risk Management from Harvard's School of Public Health, did coursework at MIT Sloan and Harvard Business School, received an M.A., Law & Diplomacy from The Fletcher School at Tufts University, and a BA from Wellesley College. Her research, writing, environmental management, and public policy experience and practice span 20 years in the public and private sectors and academia, including the Conference Board and the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's Office of Research and Development, National Center for Environmental Research. She has expertise and hands-on experience in quantitative sustainability frameworks, life cycle assessment, risk communication & management and has served as advisor on sustainability performance metrics, ESG valuation and rankings, environmental program evaluation and benchmarking.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org

Publications by Dinah A. Koehler, Sc.D.

Executive Action Report

- Shift in U.S. Policy on Climate Change Opens a New Era for Business
28 May, 2009
- Key Questions in Pandemic Planning
18 May, 2009