

Access to Experts

Pamela Bayless

Pamela Bayless, a New York-based journalist and author, has written extensively on business topics for publications such as American Banker, Institutional Investor, the International Herald Tribune, Newsweek International, and the New York Times. A former assistant managing editor of Crain's New York Business, she now writes materials for a variety of organizations, including Arnold & Porter LLP, the New York Philharmonic, the School of Risk Management (St. John's University) and United Way of New York City. Author of The YMCA at 150: A History of the YMCA of Greater New York 1852-2002 (Fordham University Press), she holds an MS from the Columbia Graduate School of Journalism, where she was awarded a Correspondents Fund internship grant with the Associated Press in Santiago, Chile.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org

Publications by Pamela Bayless

Executive Action Report

- The 2009 Nobel Prize in Economics: Reflections from The Conference Board
08 December, 2009