

Access to Experts

John C. Wilcox
Chairman
Morrow Sodali Global LLC

John C. Wilcox is Chairman of Morrow Sodali Global LLC, an international consultancy providing companies and boards of directors with advice and services relating to corporate governance, institutional investor relations, proxy solicitation, shareholder engagement and strategic cross-border transactions. With headquarters in New York and London and seven regional offices, the firm serves more than 700 corporate clients in 40 countries around the world.

From 2005 to 2008 Mr. Wilcox served as Senior Vice President and Head of Corporate Governance at TIAA-CREF, one of the world's largest private pension systems. Prior to joining TIAA-CREF he was chairman of Georgeson & Company, the U.S. proxy and investor relations firm. During his career he has specialized in corporate governance, capital markets and securities regulation, director education, shareholder rights, activism, corporate control transactions and investor communication. He combines practical experience and working knowledge of both issuer and shareholder perspectives.

Wilcox has been an active member of many boards and professional groups, including: The Committee for Economic Development Board of Trustees; The Conference Board Global Corporate Governance Center Advisory Board; the International Corporate Governance Network Board of Governors; the National Association of Corporate Directors Blue Ribbon Commission on Board Communication with Shareholders; the Weinberg Corporate Governance Center Advisory Board; the NYSE Euronext International Advisory Committee; the Nasdaq Issuer Affairs Committee; Aspen Institute Corporate Values Strategy Group; the American Society of Corporate Secretaries and Governance Professionals; the National Investor Relations Institute; the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation Board of Trustees; The Wall Street Lawyer Editorial Board; the American Bar Association Committee on Corporate Laws.

He is the author of treatises on corporate governance, securities regulation, proxy system mechanics, director responsibility, shareholder activism, takeovers and contests for control. He has written comment letters and testified before the Securities and Exchange Commission, the European Commission and many other financial market regulators around the world. His articles have appeared in the Financial Times, The New York Times, Directors & Boards, The American Lawyer, Insights, Pensions & Investments, the New York Law Journal, the Corporate Governance Advisor, the Journal of Law and Contemporary Problems, Wall Street Lawyer, the Harvard Law School Forum on Corporate Governance and Financial Regulation and other professional publications and blogs. He frequently serves on the faculty of director education programs in the U.S. and globally.

Wilcox received a B.A. from Harvard College, where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, an M.A. from the University of California, Berkeley, where he studied as a Woodrow Wilson Fellow, a J.D. from Harvard Law School and an LL.M degree from New York University Graduate School of Law. He is a member of the American and New York Bar Associations.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

Publications by John C. Wilcox

Director Notes

- Board Accountability in the Current Governance Landscape
09 December, 2013
- Achieving a Successful Annual Meeting
02 January, 2013
- Preparing for the 2011 Proxy Season
08 November, 2010
- From Compliance Governance to Strategic Governance
15 January, 2010

Executive Action Report

- The Role of the Board in Turbulent Times... CEO Succession Planning
12 August, 2009