

Anuj Saush

ESG Center Leader, Europe
The Conference Board
ASaush@tcb.org

Anuj Saush is Leader of the Environmental, Social & Governance Center, Europe at The Conference Board, working with Members in Europe, Asia, and North America to embed and enhance sustainable business strategies within their organizations.

Since joining The Conference Board in 2017, Anuj has led the sustainability research practice in Europe as well as served as Council Director for the Environment Strategy Council. He has published thought leadership on some of the most important issues in sustainability and business including the role of business in society, climate strategy, carbon pricing, biodiversity, circular economy, sustainable innovation, and ESG reporting.

Anuj started his career in sustainability consulting, focusing on strategy, innovation, and compliance, and then transitioned into corporate strategy roles, where he has experience in leading and delivering sustainability strategy, integration, and transformation programs. Anuj's previous roles include positions at the international professional services firm, PwC, with the low-carbon energy group, EDF, and London South Bank University, one of the UK's largest and oldest universities.

Anuj has a master's degree in environmental policy from the London School of Economics and holds a civil engineering degree from North Maharashtra University in India. He has also attended the sustainability leadership program at the University of Cambridge. He is a trained coach and has completed a post-graduate diploma in behavioral psychology from the Henley Business School. Anuj is a Chartered Environmentalist and a member of the Institute of Environmental Management and Assessment.