

Access to Experts

Michael Moran
Program Director
The Conference Board

Michael Moran is a Program Director at The Conference Board and Vice President and a member of the Goldman Sachs Global Markets Institute. He focuses on policy issues related to accounting and regulation, specifically addressing their impact on financial results. Recent areas of research focus include pension and postretirement liabilities, earnings quality, environmental liabilities, and financial reporting changes.

Michael is a CFA Charterholder and has an MBA in finance from New York University's Stern School of Business as well as a BS in Accounting from Villanova University. He previously worked as a CPA for Ernst & Young LLP. Michael is a member of the firm's Investment Review Committee and the Financial Accounting Standards Board's Investors Technical Advisory Committee.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org