Dave Stangis

Vice President, Public Affairs and Corporate Responsibility
Campbell Soup

Dave Stangis is Vice President of CSR and Sustainability for the Campbell Soup Company. Campbell's is the world's largest soup manufacturer, and comprises other brands such as Pepperidge Farm, V8, Pace, Prego and Swanson.

Dave is responsible for designing and leading Campbell's overarching CSR/Sustainability strategy. He heads a global CSR Network organization and oversees the execution of CSR and Sustainability goals, policies, programs, engagement and reporting for the company. Dave works in collaboration with Campbell business units and functions to deliver long term business value across broad CSR platforms including the Marketplace, Community, Environmental Sustainability and the Workplace. Since arriving at Campbell Soup, the company has been named to the Dow Jones Sustainability Indexes, the 100 Best Corporate Citizens List and as one of the World's Most Ethical Companies.

For more than 20 years, Dave has been leveraging corporate responsibility and sustainability principles to generate business and brand value. Prior to joining Campbell, Dave worked at Intel for 12 years where he created and led the Corporate Responsibility function. Dave is on the advisory boards of Net Impact, University of Detroit College of Business, and Ethical Corporation magazine. In 2008, he was named one of the 100 Most Influential People in Business Ethics by Ethisphere Magazine.

He earned his MBA from the University of Michigan and a Master of Science in Occupational and Environmental Health from Wayne State University in Detroit.
