

David Turchetti

Senior Director, Partnerships
The Conference Board

DTurchetti@tcb.org

David Turchetti is Senior Director, Partnerships at The Conference Board. He leads the sponsorships sales and fulfillment team. David participates in The Conference Board Management Committee which is responsible for the organization's strategy and financial results.

His primary focus is on new client acquisition as well as expanding relationships within existing accounts and ensuring high levels of client satisfaction. David joined The Conference Board in 2018. He has two decades of sales and leadership experience across Singapore Press Holdings, Blue Focus Group, the American Chamber of Commerce in Shanghai, and Shanghai Media Group.

He graduated with high honors from the University of California at Berkeley and completed coursework at Johns Hopkins University SAIS, Meiji Gakuin University, and the University of Bologna. He is an active member of his community and holds a board seat in his local school district.