Keith Ambachtsheer is founder of KPA Advisory Services. He has been recognized as the globe's number one knowledge broker in institutional investing and is known for his "out-of-the-box" approach to pension design, governance, and investing issues. Since its 1985 inception, KPA Advisory Services has been a trusted incubator for new thinking in the field of pensions. CEM Benchmarking Inc., co-founded by Keith in 1991, has earned a reputation as the premier global benchmarking organization in the pensions and investments industry.

In addition to being closely connected to the business side of the pension and investments industry, Keith has strong ties to its related fields in academia. aiCIO named Keith one of the globe's "10 Most Influential Academics in Institutional Investing", and he has helped guide the discourse in the field through a variety of academic positions, including Founding Director (Emeritus), International Centre for Pension Management (ICPM), University of Toronto.
