

Caroline McCoy

Program Officer
McCormick Foundation

Caroline McCoy is a Program Officer in the Communities program. Her responsibilities include managing relationships with corporate partners and assisting them in developing, implementing, and evaluating grant strategies in their local communities. She coordinates the Communities Program's health and wellness funding area, and supports the place-based initiative in Englewood.

Prior to joining the McCormick Foundation, Mrs. McCoy was an Associate Director at Arabella Advisors where she supported family and individual clients by providing strategic guidance on grants management, due diligence, governance, next-generation engagement, and daily Foundation operations. Previously, she worked at Ounce of Prevention Fund, where she served as a project manager for several early childhood initiatives and also worked on advocacy efforts to help improve services and programs for young children and families across the state of Illinois. Mrs. McCoy holds a BA in political science with a minor in African American studies from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and an MS in public service management from DePaul University.
