Sharon Stern

Partner

Joele Frank, Wilkinson Brimmer Katcher

Sharon Stern provides strategic communications counsel to Boards of Directors and c-suite executives involved in transactions, reorganizations and other special situations. She also works with small-mid- and large-cap companies across sectors to help them put in place long-term corporate positioning and investor relations programs. Her areas of expertise include:

Sharon applies best practices in investor and public relations, and corporate governance to help ensure that a company's corporate story is communicated clearly and consistently across stakeholder groups. She advises on matters including shareholder and sell-side engagement, financial reporting, guidance, and investor day activities.

Sharon also has experience advising companies in connection with unplanned executive leadership changes, product recalls, FDA 483 and Warning letters and FCPA violations. In any litigation, she works closely with a client's legal team to ensure that the communications strategy supports the litigation objectives.
