Lauren Franklin is the Senior Brand Manager at Limeade and is a passionate diversity and inclusion leader committed to changing and shaping the future of technology and D&I. Lauren partners with the Limeade Institute to develop thought leadership and research on inclusive workplaces and continue to champion the organization’s D&I efforts.

Both in and out of work, Lauren is motivated to move the needle on gender equity and is the founder of Limeade Women in the Workplace – the company’s first Employee Resource Group. Lauren also sits the leadership team of Lean In Seattle, a non-profit organization dedicated to empowering women to achieve their ambitions.

Lauren holds a BA in Sociology from Gonzaga University and an MA in Sociology from Portland State University.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world’s leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org