

Lynn Westphal, M.D.

Chief Medical Officer
Kindbody

Dr. Lynn Westphal joined Kindbody in January 2019 after leading the fertility program for over two decades at Stanford University and serving in several roles, including as a Professor in the Department of Gynecology and Obstetrics, Director of the Fertility Preservation Program, the Third Party Reproduction Program, and the Women's Health Program.

She has held numerous national leadership positions in the fertility industry and currently serves on the Board of Society for Assisted Reproductive Technology (SART), the organization responsible for oversight of fertility clinics across the United States.

Lynn is inspired by the mission of Kindbody to enable access to high quality fertility services at an affordable price for all.
