

Amy Freshman

Senior Director, Global HR
ADP

Amy Freshman is a senior HR leader focused on the associate experience. With 15 years of sales experience across multiple functions, and 8 years as a key member of the human resources organization, Amy is results-oriented building strong relationships throughout her professional career and has been in the field of flexible working since 2012.

During that time, Amy has been involved in forums and conferences and considered a thought leader in her industry. Most recently, she was listed as one of the Top 50 Remote Work Experts to follow in 2019 by Remote-How.