Eileen Roach
Head of Partnerships
Wellthy

Eileen Roach is the Head of Partnerships at Wellthy. Her team is responsible for managing ongoing relationships with existing and new employer partners. With a personal caregiving story of her own, Eileen immediately connected with Wellthy’s mission to help families with complex, chronic, or ongoing care needs.

Prior to Wellthy, Eileen was in the clinical research space and served as project manager, recruitment lead, and patient coordinator for several clinical trials in New York City. Eileen holds a BS in Health and Exercise Science, with a minor in Spanish and a concentration in Chemistry, from Wake Forest University. Eileen lives in New York City.
