

Ritu Chandy

Regional CEO Financial Services
Asia Pacific of BMW Group

Ritu Chandy is the Regional Chief Executive Officer of Financial Services Asia Pacific, BMW Group.

Ritu is responsible for shaping the Financial Service business and strategy across eight markets - Australia, New Zealand, India, Japan, Malaysia, Singapore, South Korea, and Thailand. Developing finance and insurance products and non-traditional collaboration platforms to meet customer needs for mobility in the region e.g. mobility subscription services, multi-modal transport offerings. Pioneering new operating models in the region to adjust to low cost and low scale locations.

Previously, she has held a variety of senior leadership positions across the Asia Pacific region and North America over the past 19 years with BMW Group. More recently, Ritu was Chief Financial Officer and Vice President of Finance, BMW Group, Financial Services, North America from 2014 to 2018 where she was responsible for the financial oversight and development of all Financial Services Companies of the Americas Region.