

Amir Amin

VP, Global Macro Strategy & Asset Allocation
Citi

Amir Amin joined Citi in 2012 and is currently leading the Global Macro Strategy & Asset Allocation Research team based in London. In his current role, Amir develops broad macro themes, provides cross asset class analysis and offers trade ideas aimed at macro hedge funds and other leveraged or macro-oriented investors looking for cross-market positioning. Amir holds a BEng from Imperial College London.