

Access to Experts

Deborah Patterson
President, Monsanto Fund
Monsanto

Deborah Patterson received a Bachelor of Science in Administration of Justice and a Master of Arts in Political Science from the University of Missouri. She has been a participant in the Harvard Kennedy School program for senior executives in government and the St. Louis Leadership Program.

Deborah leads Monsanto Company's global contributions and employee engagement programs. Her primary duties are to further establish Monsanto as an influential and impactful corporate citizen.

Prior to joining Monsanto, Deborah was Chief Executive Officer of the St. Louis Chapter American Red Cross. Her career includes ten years of public service in St. Louis City government. She served as Executive Director of the St. Louis City Employment and Training Agency and the mayor's top advisor for housing and economic development for the balance of her government career.

She currently serves on the City+ Arch+ River Foundation Governing Board and The Pulitzer Foundation for the Arts Board of Directors.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.