

Access to Experts

Kathleen Herath
Associate Vice President, Health and Productivity
Nationwide Insurance

Kathleen Herath oversees the Health and Productivity strategy at Nationwide for the company's 33,000 associates. In this role, she is responsible for the company's integrated health and productivity program, which includes: health screenings, wellness programs, disability and disease management, health education, work life resources and walking programs and occupational health clinics. She has 27 years of professional experience in the health care industry. Prior to her current role she served as the implementation manager for the integrated disability management program and Director of Associate Health Services at Nationwide Insurance. Ms. Herath has become a frequently requested speaker within the health and productivity industry and has spoken at numerous conferences and seminars on various industry-related topics. The Health and Productivity program at Nationwide has been awarded numerous national awards in the first four years including the 2009 IBI Health Innovation Award, the American Heart Association's Platinum Fit Friendly Employer award, the 2010 HUB magazine APEX award and the prestigious C. Everett Koop National Health Award.

Contact Carol Courter, Manager, Corporate Communications, +1 212 339 0232, courter@conferenceboard.org

The Conference Board is a global, independent business membership and research association working in the public interest. Our mission is unique: to provide the world's leading organizations with the practical knowledge they need to improve their performance and better serve society. The Conference Board is a non-advocacy, not-for-profit entity holding 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt status in the United States of America.

www.conference-board.org