Doug Kangos

Partner

PricewaterhouseCoopers National Professional Services

Doug Kangos is responsible for helping to develop his firm's perspectives and positions on a range of business issues and advising PwC's US clients on the business impact. Doug has focused on everything from the complexities of fair value accounting to the monetization of carbon, and in each case worked to distill the essence for businesses. Most recently, in analyzing the carbon economy, Doug presented approaches for companies to understand their vulnerabilities and risks and ensure correct reporting and optimization of government incentives. In addition to three years in his current role, Doug has an over 20-year career of high-technology client service.
