

Munir S. Nanji

Managing Director and Head of Global Subsidiaries Group Asia Pacific Banking, Capital Markets & Advisory Citi

Munir S. Nanji is Managing Director and Head of Global Subsidiaries Group, responsible for Citi's Multinational Client relationships spanning 15 countries across the region. Prior to moving to Singapore, he was Regional Sales and Marketing Head for Citi Treasury and Trade Solutions in Asia Pacific covering all client segments (Corporates, Public Sector and Financial Institutions) based in Hong Kong. He has previously held various assignments including Transaction Services Head for Nigeria, West and Central Africa (6 Markets), Africa Trade Finance Head covering the entire continent and Board Member for Citibank Nigeria.

Munir has worked in Warsaw, Milan and London in various roles including being an Independent Director on the boards of large leasing and factoring companies in Central Europe. Munir brings 29 years of international banking experience and has held leadership positions globally in corporate banking, product management, relationship and risk management. His extensive industry experience includes establishing and leading Citi's transaction services business in Central Europe and Africa, running a large corporate and middle-market business, as well as helping to drive the bank's business development efforts in EMEA.

Munir Co-Chairs the Women Leadership/Diversity Committee for Citi Singapore. Munir holds a 1st Class Honors degree in Electrical Engineering, Wharton alumni, MBA from INSEAD and MPhil (advanced postgraduate research degree on Strategic Decision Making and Governance). In his personal time, Munir is an active mountaineer, ultramarathon runner. He also contributes to academic research and teaching.