

Melissa Hohenberger, MPH

Global Recognition and Wellness Program Manager
Avantor

As Avantor’s Global Recognition and Wellness Program Manager, Melissa Hohenberger plays a pivotal role in the design and implementation of health and well-being programs for Avantor’s employees around the globe. With over 15 years of experience in corporate health, she is responsible for benefits, programs and resources that improve the lives and health of Avantor's 12,000+ employees and their families. Prior to Avantor, Melissa served as an Adjunct Professor at West Chester University and was a Chronic Disease & Injury Prevention Supervisor for the County of Chester in Pennsylvania. She holds a Bachelors in Public Health and Health Promotion from West Chester University of Pennsylvania and a Master in Public Health from Temple University.