

Michael Papadopoulos

Former Associate Economist
The Conference Board
MPapadopoulos@tcb.org

The following is a biography of former employee/consultant

Michael is an Associate Economist at The Conference Board with expertise in labor market research, having joined in April 2021. Prior to joining The Conference Board, Michael was a Research Associate at The Schwartz Center for Economic Policy Analysis, where he conducted research on the labor market for older workers as well as policies related to pensions and Social Security. This work involved publication of academic papers, policy white papers, and blog posts as well as consulting with federal, state, and local policymakers. Michael received his PhD and MA in Economics from The New School and his BA in Economics from St. John's University.